BELFAST

A CITY BORN IN GRAFT

Its mills earned it the title 'Linenopolis' as the biggest linen producer in the world. Its industrious spirit made it the largest, most diverse city in Ireland. And its dynamic shipyards built world class vessels including the RMS Titanic.

So, in 1951 when Norman and Mavis Williams were looking to open a clothing factory, to produce high quality clothing, innovative in style and design there was only one city to call their home.

Since then, Disley has taken those deep-rooted values of innovation, hard work and unrivalled quality and put them into the corporate clothing collection we produce today.

We are a carbon neutral business, offsetting our emissions with Carbon Neutral Britain, supporting verified carbon offsetting projects around the world. We also aim to measure and reduce our emissions each year.

Belfast. Born in graft. Disley. Born in Belfast.
